

LAST WISHES

The purpose of this letter is to state my final wishes and to provide you with valuable information you will need to finalize my estate. Although legally binding documents exist regarding my estate, this letter will give you specific information not contained within those documents. I hope that the contents of this letter will help you carry out my wishes.

HOW TO ADMINISTER MY ESTATE

Remember that I have the listed formal legal documents which are legally binding and direct the administration of my estate. The specifics outlined below describe my wishes in greater detail.

I want to explain why I have made some of the decisions I have regarding my estate and named representatives.

I would like my trustee (formally named in my trust) to consider these wishes when paying out assets of the trust:

I direct that you compensate my trustee and or other representative in the following way:

I would like you and my representatives to use advisors listed on page 2.

Dated:

Regards,
